Investigations of Allegations of Cheating on the FBI's Domestic Investigations and Operations Guide (DIOG) EXAM F. Ochoa 2011-04

In Dec. 2008, the FBI implemented a new DIOG, which described the procedures its employees must follow when conducting domestic investigations. The FBI implemented comprehensive training on the DIOG for approx. 20,000 FBI agents, analysts, and technicians. These employees were required to complete 16.5 hours of live classroom-style training. Moreover, after taking this training, the employees had to take and pass a written, computerized 51-question exam concerning the DIOG. Because of the concerns that there may have been widespread assistance given during the exam, in January 2010 this investigation was begun related to the DIOG exam. This is a print on demand edition of an important, hard-to-find report.

Tribulations - William E. Dewberry 2007-09-13

In everyones life span, there are some good times, some difficult times and some in-between times. People tend to have a better memory of the good times and the difficult times, but it is the difficult times that bring the pain and sorrow. See how an enduring faith in God brings one man through seventy years of such experiences. Journey with him as he endures the tribulations of the Great Depression, the loss of family and home and lastly, his dark and fearful walk through the valley of the shadow of death. Learn how his love for family, and his lasting faith in God helped him survive those troublesome times.
